

Everest Base Camp Tibet Tour

Image not found or type unknown
12 days

From $790

Tibet is a spiritual land which is a culturally, religiously, ethnically, linguistically and geographically distinct region located to the north of the Nepal and India. Tibet was once an independent kingdom and since 1951, when China invaded Tibet; it has been fully incorporated into the Peoples Republic of China. Tibet is rewarded by the largest and highest plateau of the World with an average elevation of 4,900 meters referred as roof of the world. Tibet is a home to the indigenous Tibetan people and it has unique Buddhist culture, spiritual land, magnificent wildlife, and giant peaks are the main attraction of the Tibet.

Tibet is the Shangri-La for travelers and has many interesting part to visit as Lhasa city, the capital of Tibet including famous Potala palace, Shigatse is an another attraction with Tashilhunpo Monastery and the fort, Everest base camp has its own meaning for adventures including Shakya monastery and rongbuk, Mt. Kailash and Lake Mansarovar are the popular destination for pilgrimage tours and many beautiful lakes as Yamdo-Tso, Namtso can be seen during the Tibet visit. Asian adventure Treks and Expedition organize all the tours, treks and expedition in Tibet and dedicated to make your wonderful holiday during your Tibet travel.

Destination: Tibet

Activity: Tibet Tour

Itinerary:

DAY 1:Arriving in Lhasa

DAY 2:Visit Norbulinka, Sera and Jokhang

DAY 3:Visit Potala and Dreprung Monastery

DAY 4: Drive from Lhasa to Gyantse

DAY 5: Drive from Gyantse to Shigatse

DAY 6: Drive from Shigatse to Shegar

DAY 7: Drive from Shegar to Rongbuk

DAY 8: Explore Everest Base camp

DAY 9: Drive from Rongbuk to Zhangmu

DAY 10: Drive from Zhangmu to Kathmandu

DAY 11: Leisure at Kathmandu

DAY 12: Departure from Kathmandu